

BUSHWALKING? Or come and do what YOU like in the bush

This short article is to describe the activities of the bushwalking club to the members of this Uni.

The activities are numerous, varied and include (1) Downhill and X country skiing, (2) Tiger walks (extended trips in a short time). (3) Abseiling (means of getting down a cliff with a rope). (4) Canyoning (abseiling into canyons and swimming down rivers. (5) Liloing (floating down a river on an airbed). (6) B-B-Q. (7) Interstate trips such as Tasmania and overseas holidays to New Zealand. (8) And of course plain ordinary bushwalking.

Vinning 579-3406 (president), Bob Jerrums 95-1710 (walks secretary) or Lynda Pearson 349-4425 (secretary) for any information that you might require.

But then you say I cannot join because I have not got any gear. Then in that case the club lends the required gear until you can obtain your own.

We are a formally loose club accepting many people to come on our activities, although they do not belong to our club and we know that they may never come again.

But we do try and abide by some rules, such as "do not destroy the bush"

For those interested, climbing, caving and canoeing are also catered for.

The way to find out about those exciting, adventuresome trips is to attend a meeting, which are held on the first Thursday of the month in meeting room 1 (the Outhouse) or in the Cracknell Pavillion. Look for it in the Union newsheet.

The meetings usually start at 7.30 pm and after a formal finish, tea/coffee, biscuits are served and slides are shown; and this is the time when everybody gets to know everybody else. If you cannot come to the meeting, then ring Ross or "everything you bring take it back, bar the ashes."

As the new walks programme will be coming out soon, we don't know what will be on although probable guesses are walks and day walks only as the exams are getting near.

But one thing to look forward to, is the club's annual B-B-Q on December 2-3. So come along and relieve those examinations frustrations.

Anyway, hoping to hear from you soon,

Nick Bendeli

Bushbashing....

Bushwalking, climbing,
orienteering, FALLSING?

Well, you missed out on it. On Sunday 5th, a day trip down Kalang Falls was organized by our pres. The trip started at dawn at Kanangra Walls car park. After much hassle and tussle amidst a gale wind, everybody started. Five minutes later we arrived at the creek, and a minute later arrived at the first fall of a series of ten beautiful, magnificent, awe-inspiring drops. An anchoring point was found, the ropes set up and half an hour later, eight people had safely negotiated the first abseil. In the meantime the menacing clouds had gone, the wind abated and the warm sunshine pervaded the still atmosphere.

Successfully, fall after fall, was tackled and mastered until the first hitch occurred. "Hey Ross, the rope won't come down!!". Tugging and pulling did not seem to produce any effect, so up goes Ross, scrambling/climbing the first eighty feet, then prussicking the next thirty to the top of the fall to dislodge the rope. Having accomplished the task, he abseiled down, and everybody pulled on the rope, but to no avail. So up goes Ross again, this time along a gully as it seemed to be an easier route. One hour later, the route was declared too hard for the circumstances, so another display of scrambling and prussicking was performed. In the meantime, while one member was busy running around like a hare, the other seven were busy sunning themselves and having lunch in the warm air besides a crystal clear pool. Finally, the rope was released from the top, and the unlucky guy at the top had to make three risky fifty foot abseils to return. In other words 2½ hours after everybody was down the rope came down.

The descent down the falls continued peacefully and calmly with the majestic scenery of Zhurat spires on the left, Kanangra walls on the right and occasionally Mt Cloudmaker with Rip, Rack, Roar and Rumble, in the middle.

At half-past four, the last abseil was finished, and by 4.45 the last rope was coiled, then a hundred metre walk brought the party to the way back-up via Murdering Gully (Murdering. I wonder why?) The 2000 foot ascent proved easy with occasional "hard" pitches, and one hour after starting from the bottom, the top was reached. Whence everybody piled into the cars and headed to the Chinese cafe, while declaring what a fantastically enjoyable day it has been.

So, the moral of the story is: come away soon, as outings such as this are organized all the time.

CHERRIO!

"Rucksack sport" and YOU
as a student.

The holidays are over, and you are starting to "learn" again. As you get snowed under the amount of work, you wonder what hope is there from the ever increasing pressure of more knowledge? The answer is to join a club and one of the best to join is the Bushwalking Club.

The Club is extremely diverse in its activities and caters for all shapes, sizes and beliefs. The activities are numerous and include: mountaineering, orienteering, bushwalking, skiing, abseiling, canyoneering, rambling, climbing, hiking, B-B-Q and reunions. The level of activities ranges from easy day trips for the "sweet, young thing" to expeditions in New Zealand and Tasmania.

Usually there is at least one trip per weekend with more in the holidays and less during the examinations, YOU decide when to go away. Equipment can usually be borrowed in the initial stages.

How do YOU find out more about the club? Come along to one of our meetings. They are held on the first Thursday of every month in the Stan Creeknell pavilion at 7.30 pm.

So if YOU have a sense of adventure, LIKE to tackle a challenge, WANT to find how easy or rugged it is in the bush, WANT to see more than the "tourist" does, then come away with us.

HOT PIES!

NICK BENDIS

How Will YOU Spend YOUR Holidays?

Will you enjoy yourself exploring the wonders of Australia, through skiing, climbing, walking activities and general association with a travelling set OR just waste them by hanging in the pub, watching television and just loafing around? The decision is up to YOU.

The Bushwalking Club is a group of people who like to explore and generally do their own thing amidst the scenic wonders of areas such as the Blue Mountains, Budawangs, Warrumbungles and the Snowy Mountains, just to name a few. The level of activities range from very hard to easy day-trips and barbeque for the not so energetic or fit! If you have an urge to get away from it all, an inclination to be in the outdoors, a desire to see areas that "tourists" do not see, or just wish to socially mix with outdoor-loving people, then you are welcome in the club.

During the break approximately a dozen trips are planned (plus many more not on the programme). Trips to walk, to climb, to ski and also social functions for the not so enthusiastic. If the trips planned do not suit you, then YOU organize YOUR OWN.

But you ask, how does one get in contact with the Club? There are at least five ways. In order of preference, these are: (1) monthly meetings held on the first Thursday of every month (next on the 5th July) at 7.30 p.m. in the Sam Cracknell. Visitors are welcome. Films, slides, coffee and biscuits usually follow. See details in Union Newsheet. (2) Come to the daily talks during lunch, at the Chancellor's court (Physics Building), next to the reclining nude. (3) Talk to a bushwalking friend. (4) Leave a message in the Club's Union mailbox (No. 12). (5) Ring Ross 579-3406 (Uni extension 2392), Nick 649-2178, Lynda 349-4425, or anyone at 349-1716.

So cheerio and we shall see you soon.

HOT PIES!
Nick.

Christmas climbers

Three young men from Sydney will spend Christmas climbing in the Stirling Ranges in preparation for a climbing expedition in Africa early next year. Teachers Joe Friend (23) and Andrew Stewart (26) and foreman Peter Blackwood (22) will leave Perth for Africa on Thursday with 300 lb of equipment. They plan to climb in Kenya, Uganda and Zaire. Mr Friend said that they were attracted to Africa because of the diversity of peaks.

UNIVERSITY OF N.S.W. BUSHWALKERS CLUB. INDEX OF POSSIBLE TRAILS.

This list has been compiled from past walks programmes of this and other clubs and with some assistance from guide books ('Windungura' and 'Snowy Mountains Walks'). Consequently there is no information on the grade of each trip, its length, or its type (walking, swimming, ropework, etc. Anyone wishing to lead a walk from this list would be advised to check the route on a map before listing it in a walk programme. In areas such as the Colo it would also be wise to check whether rafts are necessary.

The accuracy of this list is not high. Some trips have possibly been listed twice, due to duplicate naming, and a number of the trips in the general classification should perhaps be under the "day trips" or "hiking" groupings. There will undoubtedly be a large number of inconsistencies and misspellings to cause confusion. This will unfortunately be particularly evident in the areas less visited by the Club, and those classed "Miscellaneous". Many of these I have never heard of, let alone know their locations. Hopefully people will find out and let me know.

Peter Tuft,

UNIVERSITY OF N.S.W. BUSHWALKERS' CLUB

MILES FROGMAN - OCTOBER 1975

- 5 - 7 * Beginners' convener. Learn the ropes with Mick. Abseiling and swimming (in October ?), but easy. Small party only. Nick Bendall 649 2178
- 13 - 14 * Iharug National Park. Dave continues his explorations. Easy to moderate. Abseiling At Nutley. Dave Sanders 929 4502
- 13 (Sat.) * Iharug National Park again. Go with Peggy instead if you can't afford the whole weekend. Peggy Ashwell 405 4447
- 14 (Sun.) * Royal National Park on Goodbrook: arcan. Anne wants at least one person who can navigate. Anne Blackwell 93 1329
- 14 (Sun.) * Orienteering, Warrumbiri, Royal National Park. Probably starting from about 9.30 onwards. The best way to learn to navigate.
- 20 - 21 * Warrumbirri - Bonan Pio - Wollombilly R. - return. The spectacular Pio, and a river-side campsite - always a nice place to end a day. Easy. Charlie Morris 663 4000
- 20 - 21 <sup>SAT 20</sup> * Mongarlow Rd. - Mog Mog Track - Ryangge Walls - return. A different way of doing the Warrumbirri. Medium. Brian O'Connor 665 1100
- 27 - 28 * Batech Camp - Colong Caves - Kourang Mtn. - Butcher's Gk. - Yerrandowie - Batech Camp. See the best in Gundangara all in one weekend - the caves, the Kourang valley, beautiful Butcher's Gk., and Yerrandowie itself. Medium to hard. Peter Meyer 665 2514
- 27 (Sat.) <sup>ANDON CANYON</sup> * Iharug yet again. What's the attraction up there? Only one way to find out. Very easy. Stan Reas 349 1716
- 28 (Sun.) * Renangra - Maudering Gully - Three Spires - Renangra. Like a single traverse of the Three Sisters, but easier, and even more spectacular. Medium. One short easy abseil. John Gallagher 44 3356
- November
3 - 4 * Deane Brook and Renangra Falls. The ultimate crag, followed by a very hard one the next day. Abseiling and swimming. Hard to very hard. Nick Bendall 649 2178

KALANG FALLS

IMPORTANT NOTICE! Keep the Oct - 9th December free at all costs for the annual Bore-Log (barbecue to you, present). The social event of the year! A happening not to be missed! Venue to be advised later.

NOW is the time to start planning for extended trips during the summer break. Linda Pearson wants to go Cradle Mt. - Lake St. Clair National Park (central Tasmania) in late January. Easy to medium, 1 to 2 weeks.

Peter Taft wants to do both the Eastern Arthurs (including Federation Peak) and the Western Arthurs (the heart of Tasmania's wild south-west) in late February. Medium to hard, 2 to 3 weeks.

If the dates or places don't suit you, see the Notice Secretary anyway, as quite a number of such trips usually go.

THE CLUB meets on the first Thursday of each month in the Sam Crookwell Pavilion at 7.30. For information phone Dave Sanders (President) 929 4502; Linda Pearson (Secretary) 349 425; or Peter Taft (Notice Secretary) 46 384.

|----------|-------------------|---|----------------------------|
|          | 11 (Sun.)         | * Be daring. Take the day off. Let Linda lead you from the straight and narrow and wander the winding ridges of the Colo instead. Easy (of course).CLAUSTRAL  | Linda Pearson349 4425  |
|          | 10 SAT17 - 18 | * Spend the weekend in bed, and let it do the work for a change, as you float down the Kowmung or Cox. Easy (can you conceive a hard lilo trip?) followed by a medium walk out.   | Dave Sanders929 4502   |
| a trip { | 18 (Sun.)         | * If you are conscience stricken at thought of two days lying on a lilo, try just one day instead, in Bogey Hole Ck. Easy.  | Brian O'Connor665 1100 |
|          | 21 - 25           |   |                            |
|          | 24 - 25           | * Medlow Gap - Knights Deck - Cox R. - Splendour Rock - Medlow Gap. Perhaps yet another lilo trip. Otherwise a pleasant river walk anyway. Easy to medium.  | Peter Meyer665 2514    |
|          | 24 - 25           | * Recidal plans a quick (?) run up Corrock-billy as a warm-up on Saturday morning before another attempt on the Corang R. cascades, via Corang Peak. Easy to medium.  | Reddal Leslie349 1716  |
| a trip { | 25 (Sun.)         | * (Poor Greg, it gets them all in the end.) He mentioned swimming and sunbaking, but I don't recall anything about walking.Maitland Bay   | Greg Cave922 1390      |

|          | December1 - 2 | * Unwind after the exams on a lilo in the Colo. Sandwiched between interesting (!) walks in and out. Medium.  | Peter Tuft46 3843      |
|          | 1 (Sat.)          | * Stan has another moment of triumph in his never ending search for new places to go. Little Hartley - Camel's Back Ridge - Ferntree Gully - Mt Piddington. Medium.   | Stan Rees349 1716      |
|          | 3 - 7             | * Three or four days of medium to difficult walking or canyoning. Where? Anywhere - Nick neither knows nor cares at present.  | Nick Bendall649 2178   |
|          | 8 - 9             | * The event you've all been waiting for is at last at hand! The U.N.S.W.B.W. Annual Boree-Log will be held this weekend at the traditional site, Woods Ck, on the Grose near Richmond. Bring your lilos (again!), something for breakfast on Sunday, and yourself (last item compulsory). | Dave Sanders929 4502   |

Nick wants to do an extended trip in the Snowy during the two weeks between the barbecue (sorry, Boree-Log) and Christmas. The purpose is to locate huts for use on ski trips, and the trip is thus worthwhile on practical grounds alone for anyone interested in skiing. The general route is from Kiandra to Kosciusko and return, via anything that takes Nick's fancy.

A repeat notice: see Linda Pearson or Peter Tuft soon if you want to go to that mecca of all Australian walkers, Tasmania, during the summer.

The Club meets on the first Thursday of each month in the Sam Cracknell Pavilion at 7.30. For information phone Dave Sanders (President), Linda Pearson (Secretary) or Peter Tuft (Walks Secretary).
