UNSW OUTDOORS CLUB

CLUB INFO

The UNSW Outdoors Club (UNSWOC) is an exciting club with enthusiastic members involved in a range of great outdoor activities. The club encourages an active and safe environment in which to learn new skills, meet new friends and enjoy the outdoors.

For fun, adventurous and social weekends, join in some of the club's activities:

- Bushwalking and camping
- Rock climbing and mountaineering
- Kayaking
- Rogaining
- Canyoning and caving
- Cross country skiing
- Mountain biking

With regular beginners' trips throughout the year, we have events for all levels of experience. If you are experienced and have a good idea for a trip then feel free to lead one.

UNSW OUTDOORS CLUB

CLUB MEETINGS

Meetings are held once a month during session. Check the announcements on the website or emails to members for dates and locations. At the club meetings:

- Find out about upcoming trips
- Get to know the other members
- See presentations on recent trips
- Enjoy a free BBQ
- Bring your friends to join the club

EQUIPMENT

The club has an extensive collection of gear including tents, specialised climbing equipment and kayaks. Members can hire this gear for club trips for a small fee. Our gear database is available on our website www.unswoc.org.

CLUB MEMBERSHIP

12 months: $ 50

6 months: $ 30

This gives you:

- Participation in all club trips
- Low hire fees on club gear for club trips
- Discounted entry to indoor climbing on Friday nights
- Discounts at various camping & adventure stores and websites
- Drinks and BBQs at club meetings
- Insurance cover on club organized and run trips

INDOOR CLIMBING

On Friday nights during semester, we climb for $5 from 5 – 10pm at
The Ledge – Arena,
Sydney University

This is an excellent opportunity for members to get into climbing – experienced or not. All other nights we pay a reduced entry fee of $7. For more information about The Ledge check out the Sydney University Sports website at www.susport.com

On Monday afternoons we climb for a reduced fee of $9 at Sydney Indoor Climbing Gym
